The 24th International Self-Directed
Learning Symposium
February 3-6, 2010 • Cocoa Beach, Florida
Make your plans to attend now!

The 2010 International Symposium on Self-Directed Learning will definitely be one you won't want to miss!! Mark your calendar for February 3-6 in Cocoa Beach, Florida. Sessions of interest to a wide variety of audiences will be available, including all levels of education inside and outside of institutions, health professions, and human resource development, both within the US and internationally.

See the website for student scholarship info for 2010, and bring items for the 2010 Silent Auction to support 2011 student scholarships.

A few comments from previous attendees:

- The Symposium was a wonderful opportunity to meet some of the major researchers in self-directed learning. . . . I think it should be on a “must attend list” for any student, practitioner, or faculty member interested in this line of research. . . .*
- The value of the SDL Symposium for me is that we talk across boundaries and form a true learning community.*

Call for Papers

Paper proposals are due by October 15, 2009. They should be sent to lguglie@fau.edu
See the website (<http://www.sdlgobal.com>) for guidelines.
